Foreword

We, the Viking staff, have planned this action yearbook at Northwest High School to help you recall and relive moments of pleasure here.

Whether we are Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, or Freshmen, we have shared in our class dreams which have caught the vision of learning, the value of true friendship, the realization of individual worth, the necessity for self-discipline, the challenge of teamwork, and the hope of democratic freedom. We, as classmates, have dreamed together while we have worked and while we have played.

Our talents are shown in the many scenes of action which cover these pages. Honor, dignity, and pride have been our reward for these accomplishments.

We students must realize that each of us hold the power to develop our abilities or to let them lay dormant for we determine tomorrow's fate by our activities today.

Dedication

We, the graduating class of 1964, take pleasure in dedicating this edition of THE VIKING to one who has given to the staff and class of '64 his faithful and generous helping hand, and who has dedicated the past two years of his life to the foundation of an institution which will always benefit this community.

We are deeply indebted to this devoted leader, Mr. R. L. Billings, Jr., for the wonderful accomplishments he has helped us to achieve.

1963 Junior-Senior Prom

In Memory

President John F. Kennedy, thirty-fifth president of the United States, was assassinated on November 22, 1963 in Dallas, Texas. We, the Seniors, will forever remember this tragic occurrence during our last year at Northwest. Mr. Billings was very considerate in securing two television sets and allowing the student body to assemble in the auditorium, on Monday, to view the funeral of our late president. He was one of the most highly respected and beloved of presidents. This respect was demonstrated by so many foreign dignitaries attending his funeral, and still three months later, people standing in line to view his resting place.

This photo was taken by our student photographer, Franklin Ellison, within ten minutes after the news reached our school of President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Vikings on the Move

The following pages of school activities should be a treasured memory for the seniors.

In the activity sections, everyone will find various interest to stimulate their memory.

This year the Viking Staff has endeavored to make this yearbook more for you, the student, than anyone else. Our theme throughout the book is activities centered around your daily routine here at Northwest High School; the changing of classes . . . Harvest Festival . . . Christmas Dance . . . club meetings . . . and various classes. We feel this 1964 yearbook belongs to you, and we hope it will bring back many memories.

Student body President takes action.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Thank you . . .

The 1964 Viking Staff would like to thank our advertisers who have made this book possible. Those who sought the ads learned that it was not always easy to get results, even with a smile and a pleasing manner. True salesmanship had to be exhibited to convince well-seasoned businessmen of the worthiness of advertising in our yearbook. We are always appreciative when citizens of our communities show their faith in us through their financial support.
